

Lena Low

The Australian Council on Healthcare Standards, Australia

Dr Lena Low is Executive Director Corporate & Assessor Divisions at The Australian Council on Healthcare Standards (Australia's leading accreditation agency which also accredits internationally). Dr Low has been involved in the health care industry since 1995 with involvement in strategic development and operationalising health care accreditation systems. Dr Low currently has responsibility for management of national and international corporate services and its 400+ assessors. Dr Low is also a Board Director of two organisations and has previous experiences as interim Chief Executive Officer and Company Secretary. She achieved her PhD with specialisation in public health and community medicine from the Faculty of Medicine, University of New South Wales, Australia. Dr Low graduated with Master of Business Administration from Southern Cross University, Australia; is a graduate of The Australian Institute of Company Directors (AICD) and is appointed Justice of the Peace by the New South Wales Government, Australia.

Dr Low holds positions as Adjunct Fellow at Macquarie University, Australia; is a Council member of The International Society for Quality in Health Care External Evaluation Association (IEEA), Switzerland; is Board member of The Asian Society for Quality in Health Care (ASQua), Malaysia and Board member of a leading Sydney private golf club. She also holds status as an Expert for The International Society for Quality in Health Care (ISQua), Dublin. Dr Low is a Fellow of AICD, Fellow of The Australasian Association for Quality in Health Care and Associate Fellow of The Australasian College of Health Service Management.