

Prasenjit Mitra

All India Institute of Medical Sciences, India

He is currently a Clinical Scientist of the Department of Biochemistry at the All India Institute of Medical Sciences, Jodhpur in the Rajasthan, India. He received his MD in Biochemistry from Sikkim Manipal Institute of Medical Sciences in India and MBBS from North Bengal Medical College in India. He was awarded a number of honors and scientific prizes like ACBI and APFCB Travel awards, IFCC Jocelyn Hicks Travel Fellowship, IFCC Task Force Young Scientist Award, Pitabus Jamuna Burma Memorial Award, various oral and Poster presentations Awards. He is a lifetime member of Association of Clinical Biochemists of India and Assistant Editor of Indian Journal of Clinical Biochemistry. He has trained in Internal Auditor and Quality Management System (IA-QMS) Course and International Laboratory Assessors Course. He is a corresponding member of IFCC Committee on Clinical Laboratory Management. (C-CLM). His research interests have focused on studies of heavy metal toxicity, molecular epidemiology of Psychiatric disorders, indigenous medicinal plants and quality improvement in laboratory medicine.