

Sung-Eun Cho

Director of LabGenomics, Korea

She is currently a Director of the LabGenomics in the Gyeonggi-do, Korea. She received her Ph.D. in the Laboratory Medicine from the Ewha Womans University in Korea.

She was serving on a former secretary of the Scientific Affairs and of the Laboratory Management Affairs in KSLM, and a former secretary of the Scientific Affairs in Korean Association of External Quality Assessment Service (KAEQAS), served on a former Treasurer in Laboratory Medicine Foundation (LMF), served on a former Chair of the International Committee in Korean Society of Clinical Chemistry (KSCC), and now is serving on the Director of the Laboratory Management Affairs in KSLM, and is serving on the Treasurer in KSCC. She is a board member of the Scientific Program Committee (SPC) of the IFCC WorldLab SEOUL 2020, too.

Her research interests have focused on studies of the Clinical Chemistry. More recently she concentrated on the Field of the Laboratory Management and Tandem Mass Spectrometry Researches in Clinical Chemistry.